ANOTHER GOOD START

Last weekend, League A also kicked off at the same time as the Premiers League with six countries competing against each other, with Marshall Islands having a bye in the first round.

There was some real promising results in League A. Tahiti for the first time competing with a full team, produced some excellent results from new lifters which Oceania has not seen before. What a great start to the competition by Tahiti. They defeated CNMI (Northern Marianas) by 141Kg.

This first round also saw some new names coming from the Northern Marianas. This will be a great start for the Northern Marianas in preparation for the Mini Pacific Games to be held in Saipan next year in the month of June.

There was another great battle between Guam from the North Pacific and New Caledonia from the South Pacific. Guam in the end came out the victors but both teams produced some very good results.

Cook Islands for the first time competed as a team in the League A tournament. There was some very good results which came from the Cook Islands team. Unfortunately Tonga did not enter a team for this round. Therefore Cook Islands took out the full points.

Marshall Islands for this round had a bye.
