WHAT A START

A magnificent start to the AUD$80,000 League Tournament. The Premiers League and League A kicked off last weekend in brilliant form. Samoa hungry for results produced some truly world class performances in this first round. Sanele Mao from Samoa registered a 406kg total, with Don Opeloge at only 96kg bodyweight totalled 391kg. It is obvious that the Samoans have trained very hard towards this first round. One of the highlights of the Samoan team was 19 year old John Tafi in the 67kg category totaling a massive 306kg, defeating for the first time his team mate Nevo Ioane also from Samoa who totalled his best ever 303kg. Samoa defeated Australia by 371.40kg

A great battle also between New Zealand and the young team from Nauru. There was some outstanding performances from both teams, with New Zealand winning in the end by a mere 17.58kg.

Team Kiribati defeated a very young team from Papua New Guinea by 430.60kg. Papua New Guinea in this first round entered many new recruits but unfortunately not strong enough against the Kiribati team.

The Solomon Islands and Fiji match was a close battle with the Solomon Islands coming out the victors by 112.68kg. It was nice to see the return of Fijian lifter, Apolonia Vaivai.

Between the Premiers League and League A, we saw 14 countries competing with 170 lifters taking part. The next round again will be a beauty. It is scheduled for July 2nd and 3rd.
