SUCCESS CONTINUES IN THE PREMIERS LEAGUE

The AUD$80,000 League Tournaments has just completed its second round and produced some really good performances.

Samoa once again performed brilliantly, scoring a massive aggregate score against Fiji. However we need to praise Fiji for their efforts, given that currently the covid 19 is raging on the island. Some of the performances of the Fiji lifters were outstanding and they will make it very hard for other teams in months to come.

New Zealand defeated Solomon Islands with 550 points aggregate. It was an easy win for team New Zealand however the Solomon Islands is a consistent team and will be a concern for other teams as the rounds proceed.

Kiribati unfortunately with three girls not taking part, made it very easy for Australia to take the winning points.

Papua New Guinea found themselves without an opponent as Nauru did not front up which allowed PNG to take full points.
